

Help Keep the Flame Alive!

ARIEF gives you the opportunity to give back to your industry with a tax-deductible contribution. Your donation can be made at any sponsorship level—in your name or in memoriam. Just complete the information below and return to ARA.

What is the purpose of the Foundation?

ARIEF exists solely to provide financial assistance to students, affiliated with ARA member companies, who wish to pursue an education in any field of their choice. This one-time merit award is applied directly toward tuition expenses.

Who will I keep the flame alive for?

Multiple $1,000 scholarships are awarded annually to deserving college students associated with the awards industry who meet the following criteria. The candidate

- Is an ARA member company owner, employee or child of an ARA member
- Is enrolled full-time, either as a high school senior or as a student in any institution of higher education
- Has declared any chosen area of educational focus
- Has a minimum 3.0 grade point average at time of application.

Where do students apply for the scholarship?

ARIEF scholarship application and information can be found in Recognition Review magazine or on the ARA Web site at www.ara.org. You may call ARA headquarters with any questions at 800/344-2148.

How are the winners determined?

Scholarship recipients are selected by a scholarship committee. This committee conducts blinded reviews of candidate applications, letters of recommendation and essays.

When are the scholarships awarded?

Multiple $1,000 scholarships are awarded to students each year and are announced at the ARA International Awards Market in Las Vegas. While attendance is encouraged, recipients need not be present to receive their award. The application deadline is generally in December. All scholarship candidates are notified of the Committee's decision prior to the ARA International Awards Market. Visit www.ara.org for specific dates.
